Militia Against the Strikers.

KNOXVILLE (Tenn.), July 24.—There is scarcely any doubt but that the troops will be moved to Coal Creek before noon to-day. Two gaudy gunners will be mounted on flat-cars and thus enter Coal Creek, but there is not much danger of bloodshed, as the miners say not a gun will be fired.

There is no change in the situation this afternoon. The troops still remain in Knoxville, and all is quiet at Coal Creek and Briceville. Another and final conference will probably be held this afternoon between the Governor and representatives of the miners. Some influential representatives of labor organizations advise the miners to recede from their position relative to an armistice six days, and there is hope of a peaceful solution that way.

Governor Buchanan will not under any circumstances seriously consider anything which has the appearance of a compromising state.

The opinion of Attorney-General Pickle, rendered this morning, with regard to the right of the Governor under the law to call out the State militia, is to the effect that the Governor cannot call out the militia, but they may be used as a posse. This is a bad complication of the situation, as the militia feel they are under no more obligations to serve as a posse than are other citizens of the State and that it is lowering the dignity of the military branch of State service. So far as can be seen there is no danger of any serious trouble anywhere to-day.

On what seems to be good authority information is furnished that arms are being purchased in Knoxville for the use of persons in the neighborhood of Coal Creek. Investigation shows that in the past 24 hours there have been an unusually large number of calls at Knoxville hardware stores for Winchester rifles, and it is said that 500 men near Williamsburg, Ky., are willing to come and help the miners at Coal Creek. A telegram was received from a Pennsylvania mining town proposing contributions of money, and also of men if necessary. At no time has the situation appeared more serious, although there may be no conflict until the Governor moves the convicts.

NASHVILLE, July 24.—A Knoxville special says: The troops will not move for several hours if at all to-day. Vast stores of rifles and arms are going to the miners, and the delay has given the miners much encouragement. They now say they will fight. President Harrison may be asked for aid, as the State is threatened with an invasion from Kentucky.

Victory for the Liberals.

LONDON, July 24.—The election yesterday in the North Walsby division of Cambridgeshire resulted in another victory for the Liberals. Hon. Arthur Brand (Liberal), received a majority of 200 over Duncan (Conservative). At the last election Captain Selywin (Conservative) defeated John Higby (House Rule) by 1,087.

Knights Templars' Pilgrimage.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The City of Berlin from New York arrived this morning with over two hundred Knights Templars on board. The Knights represent detachments from all parts of the United States, who are making a "pilgrimage" of Europe. They return to New York in September.

Removal of Import Duties.

OTTAWA (Ont.), July 24.—A petition signed by fifteen thousand members of the Order of Patriotic Industry has been presented to the Dominion House of Commons, praying for the removal of the import duty on binding twine, salt and sugar, and placing these articles on the free list.

A Race War.

GLENHAZEL (Pa.), July 24.—A race war, which threatens diplomatic complications similar to those growing out of New Orleans, exists here. Some days ago, in a drunken row between lumbermen and a gang of Italian railroad laborers, Horace Fisher, a lumberman, was stabbed and killed by Paolo Passuzzi who escaped to an Italian camp where he has since been protected. The Italians flung Italy to the breeze, and defied the lumbermen to interfere with Passuzzi. The lumbermen are thoroughly aroused and threaten to kill every Italian in the neighborhood. They notified the Italians that unless Passuzzi was delivered to jail for trial inside of five days, they will come prepared to take him at the point of Winchester rifles. The Italians appealed to their Italian Consul, at Philadelphia, who has demanded protection for Italian subjects. The District Attorney replied, saying the Consul should advise them to deliver up the murderer, and the Consul has sent men here to investigate.

The Italian Consul here says the story of a threatened race war at Glenhazel is exaggerated, but admits that a correspondence about the matter passed between himself and the District Attorney.

Importation of Skilled Labor.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The Superintendent of Immigration has rendered a decision on the application that the Stamping Company of St. Louis be permitted to import skilled laborers for their tin-plate mill, to the effect that the immigration law plainly intends that skilled laborers may be imported into the United States to do work in an industry not yet established, provided skilled workmen in industry cannot be found among our own people. Therefore the importation will be permitted, as such laborers are not to be found in the United States.

Whisky Trust Concentration.

CHICAGO, July 24.—It is stated at the Internal Revenue office that the whisky trust has decided to concentrate all whisky manufacturers at Peoria by the sale from time to time of outside houses. The object of the concentration is economy in operation and reduction in the working force.

Chinaman Versus Indians.

BRIDGEPORT (Cal.), July 24.—Ex-Deputy Marshal Hopkins began an investigation into the killing of Ah Tai, a Chinese store-keeper, by the Walker Lake Indians. The Chinaman killed an Indian named Poker Tom, after a game of cards, and the latter's tribe lynched the murderer.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Stocks, after a slightly more active opening, relapsed into their normal state of stagnation. Trading is confined largely to Burlington, St. Paul and Atchafalaya at fractional losses. Lazard Freres engaged a million and a half of gold for shipment to Europe to-morrow.

A Private's Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Joseph Joyce, a private at the Presidio, blew his brains out this morning with a Springfield rifle. His comrades believe him to have been under the influence of liquor.

The Officers' Day Off.

A GAZETTE reporter paid a visit to the Justice Court this afternoon, whose hallowed precincts were as quiet as the grave. The Hon. J. P. was tilted back in his chair engaged in the very annoying occupation of keeping the flies from lighting on his bald head, while Constable Upton was taking a little nap in the corner. The legal mill has not turned out any grist for a day or two. The weather is too warm to rattle for rage.

Preparing to Go Into Business.

The two men arrested for forging O. Lonkey's name to two checks the other day, which they sold to A. Nelson and Dan O'Keefe, had rented a blacksmith shop in Sierraville, where it is supposed they intended to make up a kit of burglar's tools. The trunk of one of the men was searched and disclosed a full outfit of jimmys, keys, saws and articles generally used by the sneak thief of the present day.

News from a Reno Boy.

The Sacramento News says: William J. Gillespie, formerly clerk of Chamberlain's hotel in Reno, and at present clerk of the Railroad hotel at Redding, is at the Ridge Home in this city for medical treatment. A delicate surgical operation was successfully performed for Mr. Gillespie last week. The patient expects to be out in a few days.

Fine Fruit.

Long Valley will produce more fruit this year than for six years past. The apples grown in that favored section are of the finest quality and command the top of the market prices.

Warm.

The thermometer registered from 95° to 100° in the shade to-day. The evenings are nice and cool, however.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Four Killed and Many Injured.

HARVEST FAILURE IN RUSSIA.

An Oil Company Slides Into a Receivership.

Hall-Fitzsimmons Fight—A
Murderer Hanged.

Rich Placer.

GLENADA (Nicaragua), July 23.—The famous Placer mines at Prinzapolka have again started the gold fever throughout Central America. Gold nuggets weighing from six to thirty-eight pounds, twenty-two carats fine, were lately found there. A Nicaraguan sailor stationed at the mines discovered a nugget weighing eighteen pounds, which he sold at Leon for $2,000.

Senor Cabezas, who has just come from the mines, has with him rich specimens of native gold. He says there numerous pockets distributed in all directions, obviously caused by the volcanic upheaval of the lower strata, throwing gold mineral to the surface. The excessive heat melted the gold, causing it to flow over the ground like a stream of lava.

Terrible Railroad Accident.

DENVER, July 24.—The Narrow Gauge eastbound express from Salida, Colorado, on the Denver and Rio Grande, collided with the broad gauge Salt Lake express going west, a few miles from Carlsale, early this morning. The trains were running at full speed and were heavily loaded. The engines and front coaches of both trains were completely wrecked, and four persons were killed. The killed are George A. Ardell, engineer; A. H. Parros, conductor; C. M. Cole, express messenger, and a tramp, name unknown. The injured are Ben Williams, H. C. Mulnix, Henry Schurer, W. R. Robinson, news agent, H. C. Gibson and Wm. McAdams, mail agent.

Postoffice Appointments.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Senator Plumb of Kansas had a conference with the President this morning. Secretary Foster left for Philadelphia this afternoon.

A heavy rain storm prevailed and prevented the President from going out this morning. For an hour or more he was busily engaged with Secretary Hallford. The President appointed the following postmasters: Wm. J. Baggett, staff, Lakeport, Cal.; James S. Howard, Medford, Or.

A Slippery Oil Company.

CHICAGO, July 24.—A receiver was to-day appointed for the Columbia Oil Co., which was organized June 1st with a capital of a million dollars, with branches in Memphis, Tenn., and Owatonna, Minn. Inability to float its bonds and active competition from cotton seed oil trusts is the cause of the failure. The three plants are estimated to be worth a million dollars; the liabilities are said to be less than half that. It is claimed the debts will be paid in full.

The Hall-Fitzsimmons Fight.

GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.), July 24.—The Pokagon Athletic Association of Grand Rapids decided to offer $10,000 for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight with or without gloves. The club will furnish a guarantee of a fight in Itasca county not to be interfered with.

St. Paul, July 24.—Hall and Fitzsimmons and their trainers, Barney Smith and Jim Carroll were arraigned in the Municipal Court this morning, but their cases were continued.

Failure of Harvest.

St. PETERSBURG, July 24.—Large crowds have been assembled in the district of Sezemstov with an object of meeting the local distress arising from failure of the harvest. The time for payment of taxes has been extended and public subscriptions for relief have been opened.

On the Tight Rope.

ATLANTA (Ga.), July 24.—Charles M. Osburn, who murdered James M. Bradley of this on May 8th, was hanged here this morning. His neck was broken.

Weather Report.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Forecast, fair weather.

Violating the Lottery Law.

ATLANTA (Ga.), July 23.—Editor H. C. Brown of the Southern Alliance Farmer has been arrested by the Postoffice authorities and charged with violating a postal law in republishing an editorial from a San Francisco paper, which occurred in a number of papers. It is charged that it is a lottery advertisement. The case will be tried on Saturday.

[Why not arrest the San Francisco newspaper men? They are constantly violating the law.—EDITOR GAZETTE.]

A Chinese Boss Murdered.

VACAVILLE (Cal.), July 24.—Ah Soon, a Chinese boss at the Morganstein & Milsener ranch, was found in bed this morning with a large wound in his forehead, having been assaulted with a heavy rock. He cannot recover. The murderers are supposed to be two Chinese who were employed on the ranch and who committed the deed for the purpose of robbery.

Fruit Sales.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The Earl Fruit Company sold to-day Bartlett pears at $1.50@2; early Crawford peaches, $1.30@1.80; peach plums, $2.30; half crates Fontain blue grapes, $1.40; nectarines, $1.55@2; German prunes, $1.75@2; Hungarian prunes, $2.30.

The New Cruiser.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The first rivet in cruiser No. 6 was driven to-day by Henry T. Scott of the Union Iron works in the presence of a number of other gentlemen. The contract provides that the cruiser shall be completed by April 1, 1893.

A Sad Drowning.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—M. Schor, arrived here two weeks ago, was drowned while bathing below the Cliff House this morning. The drowning occurred in sight of his wife. They had been married but a week.

Money Market.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Money closed easy at 1½@2 per cent. Bar silver, 100. Stocks after 12 o'clock were again marked by most intense stagnation, and closed very dull at about the lowest.

Pionteam and Jetsam.

LONDON, July 24.—The City of Berlin from New York passed Broadway. The Rheatia from New York has arrived at Hamburg.

Grain Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Wheat, buyer 91, after August 1st, $1.58½; season, $1.63½.

BREVITIES.

There is not an idle man in town who is willing to work.

Washoe County can show as nice grain fields as any State in the Union. The air is full of electricity and a shower may be looked for most any time.

The time will come when the farmers will want the water stored in Donner Lake.

W. H. Gould finds a ready sale for every pound of butter he can make and could dispose of twice the quantity.

A Traveler Interrupted.

The Indians who congregate at the depot at train time are a curiosity to the Eastern travelers. A GAZETTE reporter overheard the following conversation between a saddled-colored citizen and a gentlemanly looking traveler this morning:

"Are there many of your people in this vicinity?" inquired the excursionist.

"Yes, 'bout one thousand; you like to buy me dog?" was the answer given, while the Indian pulled from his basket a mongrel looking cur.

"How much do you ask for your dog?" inquired the traveling man.

"Oh, 'bout ten dollars," when the conductor's "all aboard" interrupted the trade and the gentlemanly boarded the train, while the native son spread himself all over the sidewalk preparatory to taking his morning nap.

Killed by a Dog.

The dead body of a man was again getting in its work, and as usual the gripper "was not looking." If San Francisco would wake up and punish a man occasionally on the street cars, would kill a less number of people. It is almost worth a man's life to cross Market street to Montgomery any time after 10 o'clock in the morning. The pedestrian has to do all the watching.

A Beautiful Night.

An serolite was seen to shoot across the heaven to the north of us last night and explode on the top of Peavine mountain. It was a magnificent spectacle as it ran across the heaven with a blue tail in its wake, fully thirty feet in length, when it went to pieces it lighted up Peavine so one could have seen to read a paper any where on the mountain.

Advertising That Pays.

The Chronicle and Examiner's advertising columns are full of flashy notices about massage treatment and perfume baths. The papers in question would be doing more for the cause of morality if they would reject the work furnished them by these gilded parlors of sin.

JOTTINGS.

Frequently mistaken for each other. It takes some people a long time to find out that poor health is not religion. If you desire good health deal with J. F. Aitken.

Maid of kitchen, we are part, cook, oh cook, me a beautiful book as you alone can cook, without aid of school or book. That's the kind of cook they have at the Riverside hotel.

Schamburg (to Jacobs) You was a liar and a scoundrel. Do you hear that? Jacobs (to Schamburg) I hear you already, and I think you was talking to yourself. Let's go to J. J. Becker's and settle it over a glass of beer.

Tenderer—"I feel it just as much, my dear little boy," said papa after he had spanked Billykins. "Yes," sobbed Billykins. "But not in the same p-place. Papa should have consoled him by a treat of ice cream at the Arcade restaurant."

Well shaken—"Gertrude refused Tom four times before she married him," said a girl to a friend at the seaside. "Ah, I see. It was a case of well shaken being taken. He should have brought her to time by buying her one of those beautiful looks at Richard Herz's."

"Has he been at it long?" asked a stranger who entered the church after the sermon had begun. "He has been preaching fifteen years," replied a man in the pew. "Then I won't stay." And he didn't, but returned to his hotel and spent Sunday reading one of C. A. Thurston's latest novels. "Man wants but little here below," so sayeth the good old song, and roundout the statement with, "Nor wants that little long." But if he wants it good, he must have it. He wife to Miss E. G. Gibbs for some of her "Eugenie Enamel and powder," and his children for those pretty little school hats.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill. makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use until she was able to breathe, found herself sound and well, now does her own household work and is as well as ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Wm. Pinniger's Drug Store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Happy Mothers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaho, Ind., writes: "Electric Balm has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman of same place, says: "Find the Electric Balm to be the best Liver and Kidney medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Balm is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies. It gives new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at Wm. Pinniger's drug store."

A Suggestion.

If you are troubled with rheumatism or a lame back, allow us to suggest that you try the following simple remedy: Take a piece of flannel the size of the two hands, saturate it with Chamberlain's Pain-Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It will produce a pleasant warmth and relieve you of all pain. Many severe cases have been cured in this way. The Pain Balm can be obtained from J. H. McCallough.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Itching Piles are known by moisture, like warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure. Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy is sold by J. H. McCallough.

Well Merited Praise.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one of more persons whose lives have been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who have been cured of chronic diarrhoea by it. Such persons take certain pleasure in recommending it to others. The praise that follows the introduction and use makes it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. H. McCallough.

Certainities.

"The continual dropping of water wears away the stone." So continual headache wears away the brain forces. And it is equally as true that Cephaline wears away headache, and that quickly. All druggists are agents.

A LOOK INTO THE FUTURE.

The Natural Resources of the Silver State. Why is it that Nevada is so different from all the remainder of the States in the Union as regards many of her citizens' lack of faith in her future? It is a consolation to know that most of the chronic growlers, whose feeble pipe ever and anon rises above the stern occupations of a busy, every-day life, is daily becoming weaker through lack of encouragement, and it is probable that, with the awakened enterprise shown of late in the resources and development of our State, these life-draining parasites may soon discover that the State is too good for them, rather than visa versa, and like the Arabs "fold up their tents and silently steal away."

With a territory equal in extent to one-half of the original thirteen States, with every snow crowned peak a monument for the immense treasures lying buried beneath its rocky shroud, with broad, sweeping valleys that need but the touch of the enchanter, irrigation, to cause

THEIR AMPLE BOSOMS

To bud and blossom like the emerald clad isles of the Antilles, with an influx of new blood, to awaken from the Rip Van Winkle sleep in which many of our disheartened citizens are indulging, will again resound the swinging blows of the keen edged axe, the sharp click of the miners' pick and the soft murmur of the mountain stream, as, diverted from its proper bed, it glides rippling through the sluice boxes, carrying with it its burden of golden flakes, which have been torn from nature's keeping by restless man's ingenuity. With this impetus guaranteed to Nevada, it is surely but moderate prediction to say that such an era of prosperity will be inaugurated as this State has never seen. That we are a progressive people is proven by the early adoption of the new election law, which will undoubtedly reduce the crookedness in that field to the minimum. The State and county government expenses have been largely reduced by late legislation, and with the reduction in taxation, which the next Legislature is sure to approve, it is safe to predict such

AN EXODUS OF CAPITAL

From the overcrowded East to our fair silver State as will cause the weak-kneed grumblers of to-day to seek some secluded place where they may hide their diminished heads without fear of interference from the influx of busy, enterprising life; to these unfortunate the GAZETTE strongly recommends that they seek sheltered cloisters of one of their number's slopes, i. e. that of the man who does what he can, and there while away the rest of their misguided lives, while outside the pale of their existence the tide of immigration will sweep into and overflow this glorious State from the green clad peaks of Pine Forest range to the unexplored depths of the Colorado canyon, bringing with it capital, enterprise and skill, that will wrest from many a blind lead its precious burden of metals and cause prosperity and happiness to flood our State with their presence, and advance Nevada her proper position as one of the leading states in the blue field of our grand old nation's flag.

Work, that's what is needed; work and faint not, but let every energy be devoted to advancing and not to retarding by black-browed prophecies the glorious future of the silver State.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

A Man Attacked by a Vicious Bull and Seriously Injured. Dr. Dawson was called out to Pete Dalton's ranch last evening to attend a man named Angelo, who had been attacked by a vicious bull. The doctor found that three ribs on the left side had been badly broken and that the fragments of the broken bones were protruding through the membranes covering of the lungs. The bull knocked Angelo down and was going him when discovered by Mr. Dalton, who had hard work driving the infuriated beast away, but after repeated prods from the tines of a pitchfork in the hands of Mr. Dalton, Angelo was finally rescued from his perilous position.

Later in the evening Joe Roberts arrived from Milford with his little 6-year-old daughter, who had stepped on the upper half of a threaded needle and driven it well into the foot. As the thread was hanging from the wound Mr. and Mrs. Roberts attempted to pull it out, only succeeding in getting it up between the joints of the big toe, and the surgeon's knife had to be used quite extensively to find it. Dr. Dawson successfully performed the operation, however, and the little one is as comfortable to-day as could be expected.

A SAFE DEPOSIT FIND.

It Resembles a Theatrical Advertisement. A small iron safe, containing about twelve thousand dollars worth of diamonds and other precious stones, was dredged up from the bottom of the bay at San Francisco the other day. The settings of the jewelry are in the sixteenth century style. Were it not for the date of the settings one might suspect that the Queen of Advertising fakers, Miss Lillian Russell, had planted the safe in the dredging machine to cause the inexpensive flow of printer's ink. Had the settings been of the eighteenth century style, it might have been the property of the juvenile Lillian.

THE VERY LATEST.

Nothing But What He Had Caught Himself. The well known "grip man" for Newstadter Bros., stood watching a couple of our disciples of Isaac Walton, and after they had disappeared with their load of fancy tackle, the drummer turned to a GAZETTE reporter and with a grin of respectable dimensions increasing his usual look of good nature said, "That reminds me of the experience of a friend of mine, named Solomon Levy."

"How's that Ed?" the boys demanded, feeling sure that thereby hung a tale.

"Well, you see," he said, "my friend Solomon got his tackle down one day and told his wife, Rachael, that he was going to enjoy a day's fishing." "All right, Solly," remarked his better half, "but don't you dare bring home any fish unless you catch them; don't go and buy them, if you do, they'll be trouble." Sol agreed to bring home no fish unless he caught them, and was soon busily engaged in watching his fly "float down the tide," but when night came there was not a single fish to the credit of poor Solly. However, as he was starting for home, he discovered with the world at large and that creek in particular, a small boy came along with a fine string of brook trout. Solly asked the boy what he'd take for them and the boy told him four bits, which amount my friend handed the boy, but when the kid attempted to hand the fish, he said that the conscientious young man stepped back a few feet and cried, "No you don't my p'omised Rachael I wouldn't bring home any fish unless I caught 'em. See?" And with this characteristic climax to a fairly story, the genial drummer disappeared in the depths of one of his immense sample trunks.

POOR FRUIT.

A Well-Timed Growl from Sacramento Regarding California Fruit.

The Record-Union has this to say about the fruits of that section: "Scarcely prime fruit enough can be purchased in the local markets to-day to make a single dish. Third-rate, rejected and ordinary fruits are to be had, but even these are high-priced. The miserable stuff set before us now is of the kind that three or four years ago we fed to the hogs. The greenish, sickly looking peaches that do not even blush in their shame, which marketmen offer us, are enough to turn the stomach of the lover of good fruit. A few poor nectarines, some measly apricots and a tolerably fair specimen of plums are obtainable; that is all. The housewife has her jars and cans all in order for the season's 'putting up' of fruits, but the dust settles upon the glasses, the kettles are unused and the sugar remains in the grocery bin." The California fruit that finds its way to this market is no better, and, if possible, it's worse than that described by the Record-Union.

ARIZONA CATTLE TRADE.

The Prices Steadily Advancing and Prospects Good.

W. C. Land, an Arizona cattleman, makes this statement to a correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "I have 20,000 head of cattle on a range near Tombstone. The business is pretty poor this year; in fact, there has been no money in it for quite a while, the trouble being the over-supply of all American markets. Things are looking up a little now. Prices have gone up $2 a head in the last twelve months, and for next year the outlook is better. Improvement is due to the fact that the cattlemen have, by a sort of tacit combination, killed off large numbers of breeding cows and thousands of calves. At Kansas City the shipments have been composed of cows to a great extent than ever before. The same thing is true of most of the other markets of the United States."

JACK-RABBITS.

Most Likely They Have Followed Nevada's Millionaires On to California.

"For many years prior to the winter of 1889-90 millions of jack-rabbits were all over the State of Nevada. During that winter all the rabbits disappeared and since that time we have not seen but two of these rabbits in the country, where dozens could be seen at one view before. What has become of the rabbits? Did they starve to death, freeze to death or migrate? Who can explain?"—Austin Advocate.

They probably noticed so many of our silver mines were closing down, owing to want of proper protection, and being of an enterprising nature, have gone west to grow up with the country the other side of the Sierras.

Can't You Catch On To a known means of overcoming that obstinate disorder, constipation? Of course you can. Then why don't you? Ask those who have tried it, and they will tell you that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a matchless laxative, effective without violence—thoroughly alterative, but perfectly reliable. It invigorates, too, no less than it regulates the system, and it is chiefly to this fact that it owes the permanency of its regulating effects, since, if vigor is lacking in the region of the bowels, the stomach or the liver, beneficial activity in those organs is suspended. Deobstruents and cathartics in general are simply that and nothing more; they relax the bowels merely without invigorating them, and as their laxative action is usually abrupt and violent, they tend to weaken the organs. Use the Bitters, also, for malaria, rheumatism, indigestion, debility and kidney trouble.

Persons suffering from weak back will take comfort in reading the following letter from Mr. A. W. Barrett, of Oswego, N. Y.: "Ten years ago I was afflicted with a lame back. The pain was so severe that I could hardly walk or get about. Hearing much said of Alcock's Porous Plasters, I applied two to the lower part of my spine. In a week I was very much better. I put on fresh plasters at the end of ten days, and two weeks afterwards found myself entirely well. If I get a very severe cold, I sometimes have a return of this weakness of the spine, but Alcock's Plasters cure me in three or four days."
